At the fifth session of the Kwangsi Financial Conference, held from 1 to 14 June 1952, the following financial policies were among those adopted for Kwangsi during the latter half of 1952:

1. Financial organizations will be established on the hsien level to replace those on the special administrative district level as the basic financial units. Special administrative district organizations will hereafter serve only as transmitting channels for the provincial financial unit; all local financial duties will be directed by the hsien financial organizations.
2. Budgets for industrial, mining, agricultural, and forestry enterprises are to adhere to the standards set for 1951 and for the time being will not be increased.
3. All unnecessary construction projects must be suspended, while all necessary projects must adhere strictly to the budget and auditing systems.
4. Agricultural taxes must be revised immediately in accordance with Central Government regulations, and all surtaxes must be abolished.
5. The hsien level financial unit may approve an increase in the number of small agricultural-implement factories and local native-products finishing factories.
